Powerful Thoughts for Professional Daily Inspiration

Compiled by Gideon For-mukwai For-mukwai

Genius is 99 percent perspiration and 1 percent inspiration. Great accomplishments depend not so much on ingenuity, as on hard work.

Career success correlates to the number of words one knows. As we learn more words, the number of connections in the brain and the number of cells themselves increase. In 1930s, Johnson O’Conor’s Human Engineering Lab found that students who tested in 10% rating all gained executive positions within 5 years, while none of those in the bottom 25 did not.
